

52.22 CRISIS ACCOMMODATION

A permit is not required to use a building, including outbuildings normal to a dwelling, to house people and any dependants at times of personal emergency or crisis if the building meets all of the following requirements:

- Is in an area or zone which is used mainly for housing.
- Provides self contained accommodation.
- Does not have more than 10 habitable rooms.